Weather Forecast.

For North Carolina—Fair and cooler Tuesday, preceded by showers in east portion, Wednesday fair; fresh northwest to west winds.

In Japan they call them the "Elder Statesmen" but over here they are called "old fossils."

President Roosevelt refused to do a thing to help out the Republican ticket in New York. Here it is again. We endorse the President for not doing a thing.

A contemporary says: "When Congress assembles the Republicans will caucus on the President's railroad rate bill." There is pretty apt to be a can-cussing match over it, too.

Mr. Evins, the Republican candidate in New York, boasted that he has the Republican party "back of him." Here's hoping that it is so far back of him that it will not be able to reach the polls in today's election.

We read a little twaddle of a poem entitled "Eyes That Speak." The poet was writing about a girl's eyes but some married guy will chuckle and say as how he ought to wait till she is married and then across the table speak something with her eyes that will make the old man dry up.

Cole Younger, the ex-bandit, is trying to float a bond issue authorized by the corporation which he organized to build a street railway. He is reformed to the extent that he quit the "hold up" method and will try the frenzied finance idea of getting a fellow's money without drawing a gun.

In a case at Alton, Ill., Judge Rose has decided that a woman has a right to take money out of her husband's pockets. Such decisions as this are going to be severely felt by many a man when he fumbles in his pocket for street car fare and finds that the head of the house has taken the judge's decision litterally.

The Keep Commission was appointed to nose around Washington to see if it could discover any rottenness or irregularities in the departments. The commission evidently thinks it was appointed to keep quiet about any discoveries that might keep the public eye on the government scandals at the National capital. A Congressional Committee should have been appointed for this work, as the Democrats urged at the last session.

AFFAIRS OF THE COUNTY.

Commissioners In Regular Monthly Session Yesterday Afternoon.

The Board of County Commissioners at their regular monthly meeting yesterday afternoon were largely engaged in hearing applications for exemption from poll tax on account of physical disability and for abatement of double tax on delinquents. Where the applications as to poll tax were regarded as worthy and the excuses as to non-listing property were thought to be satisfactory, favorable action was taken. The number turned down, however, was large.

All members of the Board were present at the meeting. The Chairman was authorized to make the usual advertisement for bids for county supplies for the fiscal year, beginning December 1st. The Roads and Bridges Committee was authorized to "straw" the Federal Point road at a cost not exceeding $50.

Messrs. Sol. Bear & Co., made application for the purchase of 15 acres of the County Home tract of land, where it is intersected by both the public road, the railroad and also Smith's creek, the property being wanted for the establishment of a vineyard and winery. The commissioners were asked to put a price on the land, but as the spot wanted is the most valuable of the tract and the property is being developed, it was decided not to sell at any price; especially as no one can anticipate the needs of the county in the future.

The usual reports were made, that of the Superintendent of Health, showing that 14 cases of diphtheria occurred during October, mostly in the city, and that all the county institutions were in good conlition.

PRISONERS TESTIFY

Sawyer and Adams Tell Fearful Story of Mutiny and Murder on Berwind

BURDEN PLACED ON SCOTT

Trial in Federal Court Continued Yesterday With Startling Revelations By Defendants—Is Log Book Admissable in Testimony.

The trial of Arthur Adams and Robert Sawyer, charged with mutiny and murder on the high seas, was resumed in the Federal Court yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock. The entire day was taken up in the hearing of the testimony of the two defendants, each having gone into the causes leading up to and the crime itself in minute detail, and the evidence of one or two witnesses tending to show previous statements by Sawyer, Adams and Scott, at the preliminary, conflicting with their stories in the higher court. At 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon District Attorney Skinner introduced in evidence the log book of the deceased captain, showing insubordination and insolence by Sawyer prior to the trouble, but the reading of this record was strenuously resisted by Attorney Peschau, for the defence. Judge Purnell said the court would take a recess until this morning so as to allow both sides to prepare the citation of authorities on the question of the competency of the record on the log book.

The court room was again filled with interested spectators when the trial was resumed yesterday morning and the jurors, who had not been allowed to separate over Sunday, showed signs of fatigue. They were brought in by the bailiff in charge. Mr. J. K. Crump, an expert stenographer from the A. C. L. general offices, succeeded Mr. Scherer as official stenographer. The burden of the testimony of both Adams and Sawyer was that Scott had killed all five of the murdered men, excusing themselves for not interfering on the ground that they were unarmed and stood in mortal terror of Scott, who paraded the deck with a revolver in his hand and commanded them to stand off. They at length bound Scott when they had him assisting in lowering a boat and off his guard. Sawyer said once he did go to the rescue of the mate, but Scott fired at him across the deck load of lumber and told him to "git to hell back in the forecastle" which he did.

Arthur Adams was the first to testify yesterday. He is a bright mulatto, claims to be a native of St. Vincent's Island, a British possession, and does not impress one as a criminal. His air on the stand was that of injured innocence. He told of the dissatisfaction of the crew on the voyage to Cardenas about the food and water. Sawyer had trouble with the cook about the water and that Capt. Rumill and Scott had some words about the food; one of the men said Scott struck the captain but he did not know. At Mobile, the vessel was delayed by Scott who had not come aboard when the captain was ready to sail and he said he would go on and leave Scott, if he had another man to put in his place. Adams said he and Sawyer and the captain were on the starboard watch from 12 to 4 o'clock on the morning of the tragedy, Sawyer being at the wheel. It was, however, 12 minutes past 4, when Scott and Coakley came up on the next watch to relieve them, Coakley taking the wheel from Sawyer. The vessel had sprung a leak and the captain was relieving the engineer in the engine room. Witness and Sawyer went in the forecastle to go to sleep, which they did. About 5 o'clock, Coakley, in an excited manner, came down and told he and Sawyer to get up, there was shooting going on aft. In a few minutes Scott appeared at the forecastle door and ordered Coakley back to the wheel. Scott commanded witness and Sawyer to stay where they were; that he was "going to shoot everybody on board." Sawyer went out after a while, but pretty soon he came running back in the forecastle crying: "O, Lord, don't shoot me." Scott came again to the forecastle and ordered the two men on deck to arrange some sails, saying he was going to take the vessel in port; that he had murdered the white men and was willing to take the responsibility, if the crime came to light. They obeyed Scott's order but saw no one on deck except Coakley at the wheel; witness and Sawyer went forward and pretty soon they heard talking and saw the engineer on deck, opposite the spanker rigging. Scott was up on top of the cabin, walking back and forth with a pistol in his hand. The engineer appeared to be wounded and was washed in blood. Scott came down off the house and walked up and down by the engineer, who was raising his hands as if he was pleading for mercy. Scott seemed to be commanding him to jump overboard. After a while, witness heard a splash and the cry of the wounded engineer was heard astern as the vessel passed on. Next the witness heard Scott and the mate on the weather side of the galley; the mate seemed to be wounded and was wrestling with Scott, who seemed to be trying to put him overboard. Sawyer thought Scott had fired all the balls out of the pistol and started forward to help the mate, though witness told him he would be killed. Scott pointed his pistol at Sawyer and made him get back; the mate pleaded with Sawyer to come help him. Scott fired two shots into the mate and pitched him overboard. Sawyer had gone to the wheel about 8 o'clock and witness and Coakley were trying to fill the engine boiler with water to keep the pumps going; heard shots under the deck, Scott came up went forward, then aft and below again when more shots were heard. Scott came up presently with the cook, a small man, in his arms and threw him overboard. Witness didn't know what became of the captain. About 12 o'clock, after they had coffee and bread in the galley, Scott came forward and explained his plans for making like the ship had foundered and escaping to the shore, turning the other adrift to make believe the captain and officers had been drowned in trying to escape from the vessel. They were afraid not to assent to the plans and agreed, talking among themselves of some means of finding Scott.

While witness was at supper he heard Sawyer yell out and going forward he found that Sawyer and Coakley had Scott down. He was bound hard and fast and a pistol was taken from him. Scott had another gun but they thought it was in the forecastle. He said he would jump overboard, if they would turn him loose. Scott asked for a quilt and overcoat and to be put in the cabin. Witness got his overcoat, searched the pockets and finding no pistol, wrapped it around him and put him on the cabin. Sawyer was on watch and cried that he saw a steamer. He went forward to signal, but pretty soon heard Coakley yell "O, Lord, I'm shot." Witness went back and found that Coakley had been shot and had fallen over on the captive. Scott gripped a pistol, in his hand and witness and Sawyer had to beat his knuckles to get it away from him. They got Coakley some water to gargle his throat after Scott was rebound, but the wounded man was soon dead. They then signalled the steamer but she paid no attention and pretty soon they attracted the schooner King, which came up to them. When they were hailed Sawyer said: "For God sake come to our assistance. We have got a man aboard here who has killed the captain, mate, engineer, steward and just a while ago killed a sailor." Witness then told of the rescue and subsequent landing in Southport. He denied inciting a mutiny or having bought a pistol in Mobile as testified to by Scott on Saturday. The cross-examination by the District Attorney was short but incisive. He endeavored to make the witness ashamed of himself for being such a coward in that with three other men on board in sympathy with him, he could not subdue Scott before he had killed five men. He confessed that he had trouble on the British schooner Benefit one time about the food, but denied that he aided or abetted in any mutiny aboard that ship.

Robert Sawyer next took the stand. He is black, thick-lipped, but reasonably intelligent. His nature and instincts from his appearance would seem rather to be more of the brute than his conversation would indicate. His statement was plain, straightforward, vivid and almost exactly coincided with that of Adams except that he went more into details. He told of Scott's having gone below after the mutiny, brought up a stone jar, scoured the blood from the deck and poured it over the rail. His direct examination was concluded when dinner recess was taken a little after 1 o'clock until 3:15 P. M.

The District Attorney's cross-examination of Sawyer lasted nearly all the afternoon and brought out nothing especially new. Upon the conclusion of the cross-examination and re-direct by Mr. Peschau, Mr. R. W. Weeks and Dr. J. Arthur Dosher, of Southport, were examined by the defence as to conflicting statement made by Scott at the preliminary and in the higher court. Their testimony, however, was considerably weakened by the District Attorney on cross-examination when they admitted the court room was crowded at Southport and they may have not heard distinctly. The defence then rested and Capt. J. W. Taylor, of the schooner Blanche H. King, was recalled by the government to prove conflicting statements by Sawyer and Adams at Southport and Wilmington. Mr. Peschau was equally successful in weakening the effect of Capt. Taylor's statement by the admission of a possibility of being mistaken. Capt. Taylor, however, said that both the defendants had at various times told different stories about the affair as to details.

At the conclusion of the verbal testimony Col. Skinner begged leave to offer in evidence the log book from the ill-fated schooner, showing on July 30th that Sawyer was "logged" for insubordination and insolence and for the purpose of contradicting Sawyer. Mr. Peschau objected on the ground that the log was an ex-parte statement and could be used as prima facie evidence only in cases of desertion. Besides the log book did not comply with the statute in that it was signed only by the captain and mate. Mr. Peschau then cited a large number of authorities, but the Judge interrupted to say that the hour for a recess for the day had arrived and he took it that the attorneys were not then prepared to argue the decisions, neither was the court prepared to pass upon them, therefore he would have court adjourned until this morning which was done. The case will hardly reach the jury before this afternoon.

THE CITY COUNCIL

Affairs of Streets, Wharves and Sidewalks Considered Largely Last Night

NO MORE CARNIVALS HERE

Aldermen Placed Ban on Them Forever After This Month—Mass of Routine Work—Appropriation to Pave Third Street.

The Board of Aldermen was in session nearly four hours last night. Matters of interest and importance in the Department of Streets and Wharves, the passage of an ordinance looking to the permanent improvement of the sidewalks of the city; another, systematizing the work of the street cleaning department and the granting of a franchise to the Atlantic Coast Line to run certain tracks and spurs to additional repair shops which will be built here occupied the greater portion of the session. Mayor Waddell was in the chair and every alderman was in his seat. The meeting was harmonious except a little tilt between Chairman O'Brien and Alderman W. H. Yopp, of the Streets and Wharves Committee, which, however, was smoothed over in short order and the business went on.

Reports from standing committees were first called. Chairman O'Brien, of the Streets and Wharves Department, reported that repairs to the rock quarry have been completed and that material from the same will be forthcoming, Wednesday of this week. The paving of foot of Grace street with granite blocks will begin, he said, this week. Property owners, it was understood, would pay their pro rata share of the cost of the improvement without contest. Four and a half blocks of the North Fourth street paving have been completed and about 800 feet of the drainage laid. Further time was asked as to the repair of Church street and the grading of Meares street. Communication of B. F. Keith relative to Chesnut street dock was referred to the Streets and Wharves Committee. Complaint that foot of Dock street is being blocked by railroad cars was referred to by Mr. O'Brien. The Mayor said the matter had just been called to his attention and he would see that the law as to obstructing the streets is enforced. The matter of the lease of Grace street dock to the Clyde Steamship Co. was discussed, it being the understanding that the use of the dock is entirely at the will of the Board of Aldermen, and that there must be an unobstructed passage over the property at all times. Alderman Price called attention to the fact that Blair & Healy's building, at the foot of that street, is about 18 inches over the street line. No action was taken. The matter of the lease of the wharf to the steamship company was referred to the Streets and Wharves Committee with power to act.

An application from the Atlantic Coast Line for certain trackage rights was read and discussed at some length. A blue print of the proposed tracks was submitted by Mr. O'Brien and it was explained that the A. C. L. proposes to erect new repair shops below the present shops, on the Peschau property, recently purchased. The proposed tracks will extend from the tracks in the present yards, near Fourth street bridge. Running northwest across Third street into Hanover, and westwardly down Hanover, crossing Second street, near its intersection with the northern line of Hanover street, so as to enter with two lines of track into and upon Lots 4 and 5 in Block 261. The application was unanimously granted.

Alderman O'Brien called attention to the question of marking the streets of the city and a communication from a firm offering to sell enameled street signs was read; referred to Streets and Wharves Committee.

Action of the committee with reference to a spur track for the Wilmington Cotton Mills was confirmed.

Mr. O'Brien said the supply of granite curbing was exhausted and under the ruling of the Board of Audit and Finance, he did not feel constrained to order anything more without specific instructions. Property owners desired to improve streets, but it could not be done without curbing. The question of amount of money for permanent improvement was incidentally discussed and Alderman King favored appointing a special committee to confer with the Board of Audit and Finance relative to the subject. Upon motion of Mr. Johnson, the Board of Audit and Finance concurring in the same, the Streets and Wharves Committee was authorized to purchase ten cars of curbing.

Mr. O'Brien said that it was the purpose of the committee to put the first rock from the quarry on the extensions of Market and Red Cross streets. The work is badly needed and the committee favored tearing up the present surface with the spiked roller and lay 6 or 8 inches anew. Mr. King wanted some work done in Fifth Ward first. Mr. O'Brien said Mr. King, being an undertaker, should be the last man to object to improving the streets leading to the cemeteries. He said that corpses were actually almost jostled out of the coffins while the hearse was being drawn over the road. Upon motion of Mr. Price, it was agreed that Market street be improved first and that when that street is completed, the Board will then take such action as to other streets as is deemed best. The Mayor stated that he hoped when these streets are completed, that another macadam street would never be laid. It costs just as much as brick and is not near so lasting.

Upon motion of Mr. Karr and Mr. King an extra appropriation of $10,000 for paving Third street from Market to Red Cross street; also, Dock from Front to Second, was made. Mr. Karr thought the amount would be sufficient with what is coming back from the Fourth street paving. Some of the members expressed the opinion that the Board of Audit and Finance would concur in the appropriation, but Mr. O'Brien inquired when he couldn't get $2,000 for foot of Grace street, how could they expect to get $10,000 for this work. Several Aldermen said the matter could be "put up to" the Board of Audit and Finance. Mr. O'Brien favored testing this street law first.

Chairman Karr, of the Police Committee, reported the discharge of Policeman J. B. Farrar and W. A. Smith. Further time was asked as to the selection of their successors.

Upon recommendation of Chairman Rathjen of the Fire Committee the following were elected firemen: E. Ennett, A. J. Burris and Archie King, vice Wm. Ronge, W. B. Duncan and W. H. Kermon, resigned. The committee was granted permission to sell the old Fifth Ward hook and ladder truck and other unused apparatus. Progress was reported as to the fire boat.

Chairman Johnson reported that the Water Works Committee would be able to report definitely on the municipal ownership proposition in about two weeks. The Light Committee was authorized to put oil lamps at Third and Brunswick and Eighth and Hanover, if they deemed it proper.

Citizens of Fifth ward petitioned that the Fifth ward market house be removed and that the old Hook and Ladder hall be used as a market place. The matter was referred to the Public Building Committee for report.

Chairman W. E. Yopp, of the Sanitary Committee, presented an ordinance prescribing districts for the street cleaning department and days on which the trash may be removed by the carts each week. Chief of Police Williams explained that the districts in the ordinance were recommended by the Superintendent of Streets. Mr. O'Brien spoke of the need of some reform in the way of handling the trash. The Mayor stated that the ordinance would be advertised in the newspapers and that handbills containing the ordinance would be scattered broadcast over the city to every house. The same was passed to go into effect Nov. 15th.

Chairman Price read an ordinance requiring all persons desiring to excavate the streets to deposit a sum sufficient to cover all costs of repairing the damage. The fine prescribed for violation is $25. It is prescribed that the work of restoration shall be by the city force, which was explained by the Mayor to be an impossibility because of the limited numbed of city laborers. Alderman W. H. Yopp said that there was already an ordinance on the books, fully covering the matter and that restoration had been impossible recently, owing to the lack of material. No action was taken on Capt. Price's ordinance.

Chairman Price also introduced an ordinance providing for a building inspector as required in the North Carolina fire waste law, the substance of which was recently published in these columns. Mr. Johnson favored going slow; he was of the opinion that the law in many cases would impose a hardship. The ordinance was held over until the next meeting, five voting for and five against. The Mayor cast the vote to defer action. It was understood that the Chief of the Fire Department would act as inspector in the meantime.

Mr. O'Brien offered an ordinance, drawn by the Mayor relative to the sidewalks of the city. The territory embraced by Red Cross, Orange, Third, Water and Nutt streets, was prescribed as where granolithic sidewalks must be laid, according to the act of the last General Assembly. The ordinance will apply to all the territory "except where good sidewalks of such material, or of brick, already exist." No repairs, however, of other than granolithic will be allowed in the future. The property owners concerned will be served with a notice of the requirement and if they fail to comply within 60 days; then the city shall make the improvement and the cost of same shall constitute a lien upon the property as provided by law. Mr. O'Brien favored including North Fourth street where the brick street pavement was recently laid. Mr. Johnson, favored delaying the matter for consideration of the width of the sidewalk, etc. Mr. Yopp spoke and Mr. O'Brien charged him with being an obstructionists. Mr. Yopp rose to a point of personal privilege and thought Mr. O'Brien should go slow in making such statements. Mr. O'Brien said Mr. Yopp was a member of the committee and should try for unanimity of action. Then he charged Mr. Yopp with some dereliction in the matter of the Grace street paving block, and hot words were about to be exchanged when Alderman Brown asked for order. The Mayor rapped and other members butted in the discussion and the incident was closed. Mr. Moore moved the passage of the ordinance and Mr. Johnson made objection on the ground that the City Attorney advised that the width of the sidewalk should be specified. Mr. King offered an amendment specifying a minimum of eight feet width, which was adopted with the ordinance to go into effect, November 15th.

The clerk read an ordinance drawn up by the City Attorney at the request of the late conference of the Board, providing for the improvement of sidewalks in other parts of the city than the limits prescribed above. The district is east of Third street, north of Red Cross and south of Castle street, and the sidewalks are to be of brick where macadam improvement and granite curbing has been or may be laid. North Fourth street to Nixon is made an exception and granolithic is required there. The ordinance was passed unanimously, property owners being given six months to comply with the law.

A communication from the Fire Commission relative to unsafe buildings was read, notice being given as to those who have complied with the recent order to tear down or repair unsafe buildings and those who have not complied with the order. The commission asked to be directed to tear down such buildings, after due notice. Upon motion of Mr. W. H. Yopp ten days further time was granted such property owners as have not complied with the law, with the exception of an old colored man named Howe, who was given 30 days time to repair his house.

J. F. Sellars was granted permission to conduct a private market at 1116 North Fourth street, the license to begin last October 1st; liquor license of J. D. Dennis was transferred to George Haar. Bill of ex-Judge E. K. Bryan and Herbert McClammy for professional services in the Monk suit, was referred to the Finance Committee. The Ministerial Association presented a memorial against carnivals, which were declared a menace to the health and morals of the community. An abduction and highway robbery were held to be inspired by former carnivals. The obstruction of the highways and paralyzation of trade by the carnivals was protested against in another communication from the Executive Committee of the Chamber of Commerce. Still another protest was read from Jno. W. Atkinson, Wm. Calder, C. W. Yates and others. Upon motion of Mr. W. H. Yopp, it was ordered that no more carnivals be permitted in the city limits, after the one of the Jr., O. U. A. M. for which permission has already been given. Petition for lamp in Millis' alley was referred to the Light Committee with power to act. A petition was read asking for an increase of salary to $365 for Marsh Walker, janitor of the Front street market; referred to Finance Committee. A communication from the Board of Audit and Finance, touching various matters, was read.

Upon motion of Mr. W. E. Yopp, seconded by Mr. Moore, the lessees of the Academy of Music, were relieved of license tax, the opera house being city property and the exemption of tax being a consideration in renting the house.

The Streets and Wharves Committee, the Board of Audit and Finance concurring, was authorized to buy a new steel wheel wagon for heavy work, at a cost of not exceeding $45. Alderman Johnson called attention to the need of an iron receptacle at the city pump, where dogs might drink, but the Board was in a hurry to adjourn and adjourn it did, voting on the motion as members left the railing.

The gain in new building and industry in North Carolina is greater than at any period in the State's history.. The North Carolina Home Insurance Company, of Raleigh, N. ## REFORM IN FUNERALS.

At a meeting of the High Point Pastors' Association the other day a movement was set on foot for reform in funerals. It is a matter in which everybody is concerned and the following action of the pastors will be read with interest.

"Believing that there should be a uniformity in the manner of conducting funerals and further believing that some of the customs now followed are unnecessarily taxing to the family and friends of the deceased by exposure to the weather, etc., we are agreed to the following suggestions, which we hope all will conform to as early as possible:

"First. That we recommend that as far as practicable all should avoid arranging for funerals to be conducted on Sundays.

"Second. That we discourage the use of black as an emblem of mourning.

"Third. That the funeral director be encouraged to take charge of arrangements and relieve the ministers of this duty, either at the church or elsewhere.

"Fourth. That excessive expense be carefully avoided.

"Fifth. That the casket be not opened after leaving the residence only in very exceptional cases, but that all who desire to view the remains go to the residence, and that as far as possible the family should be alone when taking final view of the remains.

"Sixth. That the funeral service be not prolonged by unnecessary eulogies of the dead or by long discourse on immortality.

"Seventh. That if the weather is inclement men should not be expected to remove their hats during the reading of the burial service.

"Eighth. At the grave when the casket is lowered and the burial service has been read, the congregation shall be dismissed by the benediction or prayer, leaving the filling of the grave to the sexton, who by taking his own time can do it much better, thus saving the exposure to the weather, also the family and friends the very severe strain of hearing the rumbling of the clods which are to be the covering of the dead."

"C. L. WHITTAKER,
President.
"E. L. SILER,
Secretary."

The comment has been made upon the above by a correspondent of the Raleigh Post that it "is considered a rather unusual proceeding, taken altogether, and one that many people will hesitate to follow to the letter when a funeral occurs in the family." The Post's correspondent adds:

"As can be seen, the resolutions are only in the form of suggestion, but there may be many here who will be impressed with the stiffness of some parts of the resolutions. When it comes to burrying one's loved ones, such formality will go against the grain of those who have been raised to observe the old and beautiful and tender way of putting away their dead friends and loved ones. Some parts are conceded to be an improvement, but when it comes to discarding the 'badge' of mourning, stop eulogizing the dead and leaving the grave before 'dust to dust' is said, then it is a different proposition. After all, is putting away our loved ones a mere matter of form with so much business-like methods employed?"

No doubt the pastors mean well by the suggestions they make. In some particulars the suggestions are wise, but as to the matter of mourning that is a personal matter and should be left to those who are bowed down in bereavement. It is a delicate matter as to what a family should expend in laying their loved ones away, but it is taken for granted that such expenses are in keeping with the means of a family in doing this last service for those of whom they are bereft. However, the customs at funerals are not the same everywhere and it will be difficult to lay down any rule for conducting these sad occasions. After all it is a matter for a family and their immediate friends to decide upon. The suggestions of the ministers, however, may lead to some reforms that have nothing to do with the tender sentiments involved in laying away the dead in a manner that will be as comforting as possible to those who are left to mourn.

NEW YORK ELECTION TODAY

The Charlotte Observer of yesterday laments in advance the presumed defeat of Jimmy Osborne for district attorney in the municipal election to-day in New York. The Observer says:

"Two things will likely occur at tomorrow's elections in other States that many North Carolinians will regret—the defeat of James W. Osborne, a native of Charlotte, for district attorney of New York, and the failure of the Poe amendment and the consequent blow to Gorman's leadership in Maryland."

The Star hopes the Observer will be agreeably disappointed We believe McClellan will pull Osborne through but we admit that our hope may have the better of our judgment. Mr. Osborne has had a hard fight on his hands, and probably no candidate for district attorney ever made the race under similar circumstances. He has an extraordinarily strong opponent in Jerome and most of the New York press has not only favored Jerome but has positively misrepresented the able young North Carolina lawyer. However, it will be gratifying to North Carolinians to read this defense and estimate of Osborne by that loyal and splendid Democratic paper, the Brooklyn Citizen:

"The American people proverbially have a love for fair play, and their sympathies generally are with the underdog in a fight. It cannot have passed unobserved that the press of Manhattan, which has made Jerome's fight its own, has been faithless to this American principle of fair play in its treatment of Mr. Osborne, his Tammany opponent. In his speeches on Friday night Mr. Osborne called attention to the manner in which the press has garbled his phrases which he has received and the generally unfair treatment at its hands. Mr. Osborne served the people for twelve years in the district attorney's office with conspicuous ability; he is one of the leaders of the bar of New York, and is a gentleman by birth and training. Notwithstanding all this, a concerted effort has been made by the Manhattan press to hold him up to the ridicule of the community by making him responsible for expressions that he never uttered and conniving at the suppression of his speeches and public statements. If the influence of the press were measured by circulation, Mr. Osborne would not receive a vote on election day. Yet it is not without the bounds of probability that with the whole press of Manhattan against him, he may turn up a winner on the seventh day of November. Such things have happened before and are likely to happen again."

The Citizen said much more about Mr. Osborne and the manner in which he has been treated, and it will be a great triumph if he is elected today against the strong and unfair fight made against him. Here's hoping for goods news about him today. However, if he is defeated, it is something for the Charlotte boy to be regarded by so eminent authority as the Brooklyn Citizen as one of New York's strongest lawyers.

THE COTTON MARKETS.

New York, Nov. 6.—The cotton market was sensationally active and excited during to-day's session and scored a big gain for the day with the close very steady at a net advance of 15 to 21 points and within four or five point of the top on the active months. Sales were estimated at fully 1,000,000 bales. The market opened strong at an advance of 15 to 21 points with january selling at 11.44 or within six points of the high level touched July 10th. following the july condition report, and at the highest point for the season, counting from September 1st. This big gain on top of the rapid advance of last week was due to active buying for long account and covering as a result of the strong liverpool cables, continued large spot sales in the English market, unfavorable weather in the South and private wires claiming very firm interior holders. The advance of last week had greatly reduced the short interest, however, and with the market dependent on fresh buying for its chief support, heavy realizing by old longs who were uncertain as to the showing of the census report on Wednesday, causing a partial raction. After selling at 11.29 during the middle session or within six points of Saturday's close, the market was rallied by a renewal of bull support and covering of early sellers on strong reports from the Southern spot markets and predictions for unfavorable weather over election day, and demand toward the close was very active

Receipts at the ports to-day, 64,314 bales against 57,636 last week and 65,490 last year. For the week (estimated) 325,000 bales, against 345,230 last week and 386,859 last year. # HAD LOST ALL HEART

Man Who Made Honest Effort to Throw Off Whiskey Habit

READY TO GIVE UP STRUGGLE

Keeley Treatment, However, Did the Work for Him—Spent a Month at Greensboro and Found It Like a Home.

The Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C.:

It gives me pleasure to add my testimony to that of many others as to the efficacy of your treatment of alcoholism and kindred diseases. I spent the month of October, 1903, in the Keeley Institute at Greensboro, N. C. To be candid I must confess that I went there more at the solicitations of my friends than from any confidence I had in the treatment. I had made so many honest efforts to break off from the use of whiskey, only to meet with failure. I had fought so many hard battles with my foe, only to be defeated, that I had lost heart and felt I might as well give up the struggle; but I finally consented to go and be cured, if such a thing were possible, and I thank God to-day that I made the decision, for to it I owe being, as I believe, to-day a permanently cured man. I have no desire for whiskey whatever, and my health is perfect. Greensboro Keeley Institute is ideally situated in a thriving little city, the handsome building being so elegantly furnished it would be a most desirable place to spend a month for pleasure or rest alone. It is more like a pleasant home than a hospital. The manager is a most genial gentleman, and makes the welfare and comfort of the patients his study; the attendants are courteous and pleasant; the treatment is agreeable, and does not interfere with the enjoyment of the patient for an hour; the fare is excellent and a man has the appetite to enjoy it. He may have perfect seclusion or enjoy the pleasure of society, for among the patients are many men of wit, learning and culture. Altogether there is not one disagreeable feature in connection with the life of the patient at the Keeley Institute, unless he furnishes it himself.

KEEP YOUR HEAD UNCOVERED.

The Constant Wearing of a Hat Propogates Dandruff Germs.

There are many men who wear their hats practically all the time when awake, and are blessed with a heavy shock of hair; yet if the scalps of these same men once became infested with dandruff germs, the parasites would multiply all the quicker for lack of air. Baldness would ensue as the final result. Newbro's Herpicide kills these germs and stimulates unhealthy hair to abundant growth. Herpicide is a pleasant hair dressing as well as a dandruff cure and contains not an atom of injurious substance. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

—Work has begun on a Catholic church at Dunn.

—The Industrial News, Greensboro's new daily, is cutting its wisdom teeth early, a threat of a libel suit having been made against it by the chief of police of Greensboro.

Messrs. H. C. Clanton and J. R. Taylor, of Henry county, Va., are installing a fine saw mill on Mrs. Montgomery's farm, near Reidsville, and will get out some of the valuable timber thereon.

—Fayetteville correspondence: On Saturday Mr. Walter L. Holt, owner of the beautiful country home, "Bonnie Doon," in Seventy-first township, purchased the well-known Fowler farm place near his property.

—Taylor Brothers, a well-known tobacco manufacturing firm of Winston-Salem, has decided to double the capacity of the plant. They are arranging to build an addition to their present factory. The new building will be of brick.

—Roy Welsh shot and instantly killed Cisco Sheehan at Lenoir on Sunday. Both were drinking and Sheehan was advancing on Welsh with an open knife. Sheehan is from McDowell county and had been cursing every one he met. Welsh is in jail.

—The little daughter of Mrs. B. B. Jerugon, of Dunn was burned on the 24th and died Tuesday evening. She got some matches and was under the edge of the house striking them, when her clothes caught fire. Her mother burned both hands to a blister putting out the fire.

Raleigh News and Observer: Prof. Harold Hume, North Carolina State Horticulturist, has been made editor of the Horticultural Department of the American Nut Journal, published at Petersburg. His duties in that connection will not interefere with his labors with the North Carolina Board of Agriculture.

—Bishop Leo Haid, of Belmont, was in the city yesterday. He is recently back from the North and it was his pleasure while in Princeton, N. J., to call on Mr. and Mrs. Grover Cleveland. In taking about his visit to the home of the distinguished ex-President, Bishop Haid said: "Mr. Cleveland looks strong and healthy." This seems to refute the stories to the effect that The Sheriff was rapidly failing.

—Mr. Perry, of New York; Mr. Morrill, of New Orleans; Mr. Walter Hege, of Salem; Mr. Colin Frazier, president of the North Carolina Granite Corporation, and Mr. G. W. Hinshaw, of this city, a large stockholder in that concern, spent yesterday in Mt. Airy, returning last night. Mr. Frazier goes north to bid on a $4.500,000 granite contract. The Mt. Airy quarries now employ 450 men and the pay roll is nearly $1,000 a day.

—A dispatch from High Point on Sunday says: County Coroner Turner's verdict is that Bill Antny, the negro found dead between here and Fairfield early this morning, died from strangulation in a drunken stupor The negro had fallen from his wagon, his head catching between the brake and the wheel, while his feet caught in the opposite wheel, twisting and choking him to death. The negro left here last night for the home of Sidney Robbins, a well-to-do farmer of Randolph county, where the negro was employed.

—A dispatch from Spencer Saturday says: Engineer Jno. M. Connell, of this place, who, on last night was fatally shot in the store of Rufty & Hedrick by H. E. Rufty, a member of the firm, of this place, died of his wounds at 5 o'clock this morning. The wounded man made a desperate fight for life during the eight hours through which he lingered in great suffering from the bullet which pierced the abdomen, lodging near the spine. He bled profusely inwardly until weakened beyond the reach of medical skill. Once the dying man opened his eyes and said. "Tell mother and wife that I am ready to die and will go to heaven." The remains of the dead man were carried to-night to Hendersonville, where his parents now reside, for interment. He leaves a young widow to whom he was recently married.

—Charlotte Observer: The largest cotton ginnery in Charlotte, and probably the largest in the State, is being operated by the North Carolina Cotton Oil Company, at the corner of Ninth street and Southern Railway. It consists of eight 70-saw gins in two lines, with four in each, two direct acting steam presses with steam trampers; complete elevators for taking the cotton from two wagons at the same time, or from one wagon and a cotton storage house, and means for handling the seed, depositing them either in the farmer's wagon or in the cotton house. It has a capacity of 80 to 100 bales a day and is driven by one 100 horse power, high speed automatic engine. This company has ginned over 1,500 bales this season. The outfit, including the engine, was built in Charlotte and is a model of completeness.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over 60 years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. ## A DANGEROUS MISTAKE.

Wilmington Mothers Should Not Neglect Kidney Weakness in Children.

Most children have weak kidneys.

The earliest warning is bed-wetting.

Later comes backache, headache, languor.

'Tis a mistake to neglect these troubles,

To blame the child for its own distress.

Seek to cure the kidneys—

Save the child from deadly kidney ills.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys.

Wilmington parents recommend them.

J. T. Ebert, formerly of 515 South Sixth stret, mattress maker, says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills in my family. My little girl complained of severe pains in the small of her back, and the kidney secretions were dark and full of brickdust sediment. We were very much worried about her and when I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills I went up to R. R. Bellamy's drug store and got a box and gave them to her. Since using them she has improved wonderfully and is a different child. Her Kidney secretions cleared up, she does not complain of her back, and in fact, Doan's Kidney Pills gave her new life. We are very much pleased with them and you can use my name and welcome."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—DOAN'S—and take no other. **

His mother's death was a sad loss for Mr. Reid, but he learned that lung trouble must not be neglected, and how to cure it. Quickest relief and cure for coughs and colds. Price 50c. and $1.00; guaranteed at R. R. Bellamy's drug store. Trial bottle free. **

Coal--Wood--Coal

A Convenient Way to Buy Coal.

We have a constantly increasing number of customers who purchase their Winter's coal supply as they are able. When they have the price, they buy a ton, pay for it, and have it sent home. A little later on they get another ton and so on until their full supply is all in. Doing it this way the weight of the whole purchase is not felt. At the same time they have their fuel supply laid in and paid for ready for use before the Winter comes.

If you cannot order your whole supply at once try this plan. We are as pleased at receiving an order for one ton and give the same attention as one for a large quantity.

MASTERFUL RULER OF MASTERFUL PEOPLE

British Prince's High Estimate of President Roosevelt—Visited and Reverenced Washington's Grave.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, Nov. 6.—Honored by the President with an invitation to lunch informally at the White House, Rear Admiral Prince Louis, of Battenberg, kept his special train waiting three quarters of an hour this afternoon while the President engaged him in a long personal conversation. The White House luncheon was not on the programme and was an entire personal compliment to Admiral-Prince Louis and his royal nephew, Prince Alexander, a midshipman on the Drake. In the morning Prince Louis visited Mount Vernon where he was conducted through the home of the first President. As they came to the tomb each person bared his head while Prince Louis went up to the sepulchre and reverently stood in silence for a few minutes. It was a simple, but impressive tribute. Upon leaving Mount Vernon the Prince was presented with an ivy plant, a sprout from the plant which grows about the tomb of Washington. "I shall treasure this and take it to my home in England," the Prince said, "as a souvenir of this interesting morning."

Before his departure for Annapolis Prince Louis said to the correspondent of the London Morning Post:

"I have thoroughly enjoyed my two brief visits to Washington, and I appreciate highly the courtesy, cordiality and kindness that have been shown us by the President, members of the cabinet and officers of army and navy. The great cordiality with which we have been received, I take not as personal to myself, but rather as a compliment to the British navy, and as indicating the mutual respect and good fellowship that exists between Great Britain and the United States.

"As a seaman, I was much impressed with the American fleet as it lay at anchor off Annapolis. Its appearance, the smartness of the officers and the discipline of the men all gave evidence that the vessels were in the highest state of efficiency. And equally impressive was the review of the cadets, which showed the thoroughness of their training and the magnificent esprit de corps that prevails there.

"I had long looked forward to knowing the President. I was greatly impressed with his strong personality his intellectual strength, his comprehensive knowledge, his democracy, but at the same time, his dignity. He looks what he is, the masterful ruler of a masterful people; determined, courageous, bold. I am only sorry that I cannot see and know more of an extraordinary as well as a very charming man.

"The simplicity, but at the same time the dignity of the White House was very pleasing. It was exactly the house and surroundings that one conceives to be in keeping with Republican institutions. There was neither extravagance nor ostentation, but everything was in such quiet taste and so practically arranged that it was delightful."

Prince Louis and the officers left for Annapolis at 3:15 this afternoon.

AWFUL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

Two Girls Run Down and Killed on Trestle.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 6.—Mrs. John Dolan was walking on a trestle a few miles from the city today holding by the hand a six year old daughter of hers. Just behind her were her daughter, Lizzie, aged 9, and Lillian Marriotti, of about the same age. A train came up from the rear, struck the two older girls and killed them instantly. The mother grabbed the younger child and jumped with her into a canal alongside the track. She and the little one were saved uninjured. One at least of the girls who were killed was horribly mangled.

ELECTION NEWS QUITE STIRRING

Editor Hearst May Be Elected Mayor of New York City To-day

HAS ASTONISHING STRENTH

McClellan and Ivins Also Confident—Both Parties Claim Maryland—Democrats Say Ohio is Theirs and Republicans Confident.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

New York, Nov. 6.—An almost unprecedented degree of uncertainty regarding the result of the final conflict at the polls tomorrow, marks the close of what has been in many respect, the most interesting political campaign ever waged in the city of New York. Whether McClellan, Hearst, or Ivins will be chosen to rule the destinies of the Metropolis for the next four years presents a problem, which in the face of conditions absolutely unique, baffles the skill of even the most experienced forecasters of election results. This is due to the complications arising from the appearance in the field of a new and formidable element represented by the Municipal Ownership League, which, under the leadership of William Randolph Hearst, has carried on a campaign marked by extraordinary vigor and has developed a degree of strength that has been the subject of general amazement. The Hearst campaign culminated last night in a monster meeting at Madison Square Garden, which was marked by an unparalleled display of enthusiasm, supporters of the candidate to the number of fully 20,000 being unable to gain admission to the hall. Simultaneously another meeting of almost equal dimensions, held in the Hippodrome, testified to the strength of the following of Mayor McClellan.

Tonight the managers of the three mayoralty candidates declare themselves to be absoultely assured of victory tomorrow. Of betting on the result there has been considerably less than in former years, due apparently to the general feeling of uncertainty and to the indications that the result may be very close. In Wall street this afternoon the odds ended 2 to 1 on McClellan at which price a prominent broker offered to wager $100,000 to $50,000. The same broker placed a bet of $25,000 to $10,000 on the Mayor. Bets on Ivins ruled about 1 to 6 and on Hearst 1 to 2 1-2. Odds on the election of Jerome were about the same as on McClellan and many large sums were wagered by supporters of the district attorney whose meteoric canvas has been one of the most spectacular features of the campaign.

John A. Henneberry, the chairman of Mr. Jerome's campaign committee, issued a statement tonight predicting the triumphal return of the candidate by a greater total number of votes than those of all his opponents. Mr. Jerome made his final speech of the campaign before a great audience in Cooper Union tonight.

Rumors of colonization on a large scale and of illegal registeration have so far played a minor part in the campaign but tonight State Superintendent Morgan issued a statement declaring that fraudulent statement had been discovered of greater magnitude than the records of his office showed to have existed before and that he had taken radical steps to prevent this illegal voting. A large number of warrants greatly in excess of those at first called for Mr. Morgan said, had been returned and will be served by a newly established "secret service" corps of his office, composed of deputies unknown to the other deputies of his force. A large number of warrants were also placed in the hands of the police department tonight.

Mr. Morgan confidently expects to arrest a large number of repeaters should they attempt to vote. Most of the cases of illegal registration, he said, were in the borough of Manhattan, especially in the sixth, eighth and eighteenth assembly districts.

The forecast for tomorrow indicates fine weather with a heavy early vote, with prompt returns looked for.

With the usual predictions of trouble at the polls made, Superintendent Morgan and Police Commissioner McAdoo announced tonight that the forces under their respective commands were working in perfect harmony and that every precaution had been taken to protect the ballot and guard against any disorder.

Enthusiasm for Jerome.

District Attorney Jerome made a noonday speech today at which such a crowd assembled that he was compelled both to enter and leave the hall through a window. Hunedreds of persons who were unable to enter the hall at Beaver and Pearl streets waited outside until Mr. Jerome crawled out of the window when they cheered him until he made a supplementary speech from his carriage. This afternoon the Wall street betting was 2 1-2 to 1 that McClellan will win; 2 to 1 that Jerome will be elected; and 6 to 1 against Ivins.

Tammany Distributing Boodle.

The spectacle of ante-election distribution of funds by Tammany Hall attracted a crowd of spectators today which blocked Fourteenth Street in front of the hall. No one outside the members of the inner councils of the great political organization knows what its costs Tammany to get out the vote but it was reported today that the organization distributed more today than in some previous elections. The actual distribution was conducted by Philip J. Donohue, the treasurer of Tammany Society. He sat at a big desk in the council chamber of Tammany Hall with the sergeant-at-arms on guard at the door. One after another the captains of the assembly districts drove up in carriages to the front of the hall and were admitted to the executive chamber where bundles of money in one and five dollar bills were passed to them. They carried it away in satchels and are said to have got from $1,000 to $10,000 according to the news of the district.

Jerome Springs Sensation.

District Attorney Jerome at the final rally of his supporters in Cooper Union tonight made a sensation when on reaching the platform he exhibited a plate from which he said, he had just discovered, circulars were about to be printed purporting to be issued by the Jerome nominators and containing directions for voting for himself, which if followed, would have invalidated practically all the ballots cast for him. The city, he said, was to have been flooded tonight with these circulars, but that the plot was revealed to him by a man employed in the printing office in time to stop their issue. The circulars bore fac similes of the Republican and Jerome ballots and directing voters to place their cross at the top of each ballot, instead of at the top of the Republican ballot and in the space beside Jerome's name on the other, as has been directed in all instructions previously sent out.

Both Sides Claim Maryland.

Baltimore, Nov. 6.—Though the campaign in Maryland practically closed Saturday night so far as public meetings were concerned, the leaders and party workers in the city wards and in the counties spent a busy day in giving the finishing touches to the final arrangements for tomorrow's battles. Today's morning and afternoon papers were replete with fervid addresses to voters, all being devoted to the proposed amendment to the constitution to bar illiterate voters, particularly negroes. To such an extent has this issue monopolized public interest that another proposed amendment to secure good roads in the State has hardly been mentioned, and the legislative and local candidates have secured scant attention. It is agreed that the campaign over the suffrage amendment has been one of the most exciting and bitter in the history of the State, the Democratic party, especially in Baltimore, being squarely divided into two factions, the pro-amendment forces being led by Senator Gorman and the antis by Senator Raynor and Governor Warfield, with the Republicans united under the leadership of Secretary of the Navy Bonaparte.

Tonight the chairman of the Republican and Democratic committees predict a victory for their respective parties, though, on account of the Democratic division, the feeling of confidence is much more apparent among the Republican managers than with the Democrats. Republican Chairman Hanna maintains that the suffrage amendment will be defeated by 25,000 majority. Democratic Chairman Vandiver declined to name a figure but expressed confidence in the adoption of the amendment and the election of State Comptroller, the only State office is to be filled.

Annapolis, Md., Nov. 6.—Enthusiastic over his three days visit to Washington, Rear-Admiral Prince Louis of Battenberg, accompanied by his nephew, Midshipman Prince Alexander of Battenberg and his staff and commanding officers returned to Annapolis this afternoon on a special train. Tonight Prince Louis was the guest of the superintendent of the Naval Academy at a stag dinner.

At midnight the eight battleships of first squadron under command of Admiral Evans sailed for New York where they will await the coming of the British squadron, which will sail Wednesday morning under the escort of Admiral Brownson's cruiser division.

Anything to Beat Lodge.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 6.—Massachusetts will elect State officers tomorrow. The Republican party claims the election of Lieutenant Governor Curtis Guild, Jr., for Governor over Charles W. Bartlett, the Democratic nominee, by a large plurality. The Democrats go as far as to claim the election of Henry M. Whitney, their nominee for second place by a large plurality, and expresse confidence in the choice of General Bartlett by an emphatic endorsement. The fourth place on the State tickets are generally conceded to the Republicans. The last days of the campaign have been marked by personalities. Senator Lodge has been vigorously attacked for his position on the tariff question, while on the other hand Mr. Whitney has been assailed on his record in connection with the pasage of a railroad bill in the Legislature. It is freely stated tonight that the personality of Senator Lodge, will dominate tomorrow's election and many Republicans, it is asserted, have taken up the Democratic cry of "Anything to beat Lodge."

Rhode Island Close.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 6.—The conclusion tonight of one of the sharpest political campaigns ever waged in Rhode Island, found each of the two dominant parties claiming the election tomorrow of its respective candidates for overnor, though it was conceded by Democrats and Republicans alike that the result would be very close.

Virginia is Safe.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 6.—One hundred and fifty thousand votes will be cast in the State tomorrow when a full State ticket, members of the general assembly and county and city officers are elected. Those are the figures given out by members of the two political parties representing the leaders and the nominees. Some few overzealous men incline to the belief that the total vote will exceed that figure.

The Democrats will receive 80,000 and the Republicans will receive 60,000. This gives the Democrats a majority of 20,000 and there is no reason to believe that it will fall much below that figure. Basing the total vote at 150,000, some enthusiastic Republicans make bold to say that Claude A. Swanson, the Democratic gubernatorial nominee will not win by more than 5,000, and on the other hand some Democrats assert that it will be 35,000 or more. Some days ago Senator Thomas S. Martin, regarded as an authority in matters political said he thought the vote in the State would give Mr. Swanson about 30,000 and it is believed that he based his calculation on a knowledge of the situation.

OLD NICK WILLIAMS TRIAL.

Railroad Books Examined Concerning Whiskey Shipments by Defendants.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Greensboro, N. C., Nov. 6.—C. H. Costner, the railroad agent at Clemmons, was on the stand in the trial of the case against the Old Nick Williams Distilling Company and others, charged with operating a distillery with intent to defraud the government, in the United States District court today, reading from the copies of way bills of shipments made by the company. Attorneys for the defense objected to the witness' using the book but the objection was overruled by Judge Boyd, the court allowing the book to be used to refresh the memory of the witness. Revenue Agent Chapman, who visited the 'still' with others was also on the stand during a part of the day. Several other witnesses were examined during the morning, but the testimony was in reference to small purchases of whiskey. It will be several days before the taking of evidence for the prosecution is completed.

THE MASSACRE WAS ENORMOUS

List of Killed and Wounded Jews at Odessa Was About Six Thousand

ONE THOUSAND WERE KILLED

Rioting and Murder Broke Out Afresh Yesterday in Several Cities—President Roosevelt Says He is Powerless to Aid.

Reports received from many points indicate that the situation throughout the Russian provinces is improving. The first train out of Odessa since the disorders began arrived yesterday at St. Petersburg having taken 13 days to accomplish the journey.

The struggle for autonmy in Poland has been revived and flags bearing the Polish coat of arms are flying from many buildings, preliminary to further action.

Count Witte is having trouble in organizing his new cabinet and has taken up his residence in the palace in St. Petersburg so that he may be at the Emperor's elbow when his majesty returns, which is expected to be very soon.

The text of the imperial manifesto concerning Finland has been made public and has caused great rejoicing in Helsingfors and other cities of Finland.

Dispatches to the London morning papers tell of great distress in Kishineff, in the Caucassus and other places that have been centers of disorders.

Hopeless State of War.

Yondon, Nov. 7.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Daily Mail, says:

"War, hopeless war, prevails in the Caucassus. The trans-Caucassan railway the sole line, is effectually crippled and reinforcements have been compelled to march. Seventeen bridges have been wrecked and the rails been torn up in forty places. Telegraph lines have been destroyed and Georgia and Daghestan are isolated. Every male is in arms and the war office is helpless."

The Bucharest correspondent of the Daily Mail sends the following:

"There is terrifying news still from Kishineff. The city is strewn with dead. An unwieldly provisional government has been established. Famine reigns throughout Bossarabia, and the Jews are taking refuge in the cellars where they are dying wholesale. A mob of 1,000 rioters engaged in a massacre of Jews in Ismalia, Bessarabia and a force of dragoons from Bendary fired on the mob killing 42 and wounding 114 persons. The Bessarabian revolt is assuming immense proportions."

Situation Improving.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 6.—Dispatches received from the provinces today indicate that the situation is improving. The first train from Odessa since the present disorders began, arrived here today after having been thirteen days on the way.

Massacres Resumed.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 6.—The news from the interior shows that there has been no improvement in the situation. In some places disorders have recommenced with redoubled fury. The horrible story of massacre at Odessa is not fully known here. In the Caucassus the Tartars and Russians are cutting each other's throats and the Armenians are giving themselves to pillage and incendiarism. From Bachmut, Bessarabia, comes an entirely new revolting tale. A three days' attack on the Jews began Thursday with every indication of police organization. Jewish students were beaten, the Jewish stores in the markets were sacked during the day and during the night the plunder of residences commenced. Troops arrived on the scene, but the folowing day the work of pillage was resumed before the eyes of the soldiers and police. The prayers of the hunted Jews for mercy were unavailing.

On the heels of the successful issue of the Finnish national movement comes the news of a strong revival of the struggle for autonomy in Poland. Dispatches from Kalisch in Poland and Thorn in West Prussia say that flags with the Polish coat of arms have been hoisted in several churches and city buildings. At Kalisch a manifesto of the labor party, demanding the convocation of the national diet, sitting at Warsaw, and the restoration of the ancient rights of the Kingdom, was proclaimed with trumpets.

Killed and Wounded 5,000.

Odessa, Nov. 5.—Fresh disorders were reported at 5 o'clock this evening in the suburb of Dalnia Melnitzi. Troops have been despatched there. The theatre of the town of Akerham near Odessa, is in flames.

The governor general has requested the editors of all the local newspapers to refrain from publishing accounts of the hapenings of last week in order to avoid inflaming the public. The editors acceded to the governor general's request. The Odessa papers will appear to-morrow after nine days strike.

Anti-Semitic disturbances are reported from all the outlying districts. The peasants are greatly excited and are urged on by agitators from Odessa. Troops have been despatched to the distributed districts.

In view of the devastation of almost all the Jewish mills, shops and factories, the trade of Odessa is threatened with almost complete ruin and wholesale bankruptcy is feared, involving the international credit of Russia. Some of the banks and shops have reopened and the streets are being cleared of debris. It is claimed in some quarters here that the estimates of higher than 2,000 killed and 5,000 wounded are exaggerated.

Estimated that the killed and wounded during the recent riots here number 6,000. The city hospital alone contains 2,000 wounded. Out of the 6,000 casualties, those who were killed or who died of wounds aggregated up to midday 964, of which number 313 were taken to Jewish cemeteries and 651 to Christian cemeteries.

America Powerless to Aid Jews.

Washington, Nov. 6.—President Roosevelt has decided that no action can be taken by this government at present which will be of any benefit to the Jews of Russia. This information was made public at the White House today in the following statement:

"Oscar Straus called upon the President this morning, not to ask him for action but to consult with him as to whether there was any possibility of action which would result in a cessation of the horrors connected with the massacre of the Jews in Russia. The President stated that, of course, he had been watching with the deepest concern the reports of these massacres; that he had been appealed to within the last few weeks to try to take some action not only on behalf of the Jews in Russia but in behalf of the Armenians, Poles and Finns. The result of the President's inquiries coincide with statements contained in a cablegram from Count Witte to Jacob H. Schiff, shown the President by Mr. Straus as follows:

"'The government is horrified at these outrages. You know that I, do not sympathize with such savage outbreaks. All I can do to stop the disorders is done but as the country is in such unsettled state the local authorities are often powerless.'

"In the condition of social disorder which actually exists in Russia the President does not see that any action can be taken by this government which will be of any benefit to the unfortunate sufferers for whom we feel such keen sympathy.'

CRY OF DISTRESS FROM LONDON POOR

Wives of Thousands of Unemployed Parade Streets and Call on Premier Balfour.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

London, Nov. 6.—The desperate condition of the poor of London was brought to the notice of Premier Balfour today by a remarkable deputation of the wives and other women relatives of the unemployed, who did not hesitate to tell the premier that unless something is speedily done to lessen their sufferings there would be bloodshed.

"Don't forget that hungry men are desperate men," said one of the speakers, who all had the same tale of husbands out of work and starving wives and children. Enormous crowds of women from all parts of London marched through the streets headed by a deputation which Mr. Balfour received at the office of the local government board.

Only thirty of the women were admitted to the presence of Mr. Balfour. The premier was very sympathetic. He acknowledged that the evil was very real but he had little to suggest in the way of alleviation except an expression of hope that public charity would come to the aid of the unemployed. He deprecated the socialistic suggestion that industries should be started at the national expense for the benefit of the unemployed as calculated to destroy the springs of enterprise and energy of the nation.

At the close of Mr. Balfour's "speech of despair" as the delegates described it, Mrs. Crooks, wife of William Crooks, a labor party member of the House of Commons, and several other women excitedly invited Mr. Balfour to come and live among them for a few months. The Premier remarked that he was quite aware that nothing he had said could be other than disappointing. They had his genuine sympathy and he felt most acutely the magnitude of the evil from which they were suffering.

A mass meeting of the women was held later to hear the report of the delegation. Mr. Crooks, M. P., said that Mr. Balfour's reply to the delegation was unworthy of the Premier of a great country. The mention of Mr. Balfour's name was greeted with a storm of hisses.

HANGING IN MARTIN.

Governor Fixes Date—Escaped Would-be Lynchers at Warrenton.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 6.—Governor Glenn fixes Dec. 2nd as the date for the hanging of Preston Daniel, colored, of Martin county, for the murder of William Eborn, colored. Daniel killed Eborn on an excursion from Williamston to Norfolk. He had left his girl in a car at the station and when he came back he found Eborn sitting in the seat with her. Eborn moved away remarking "this is a diabose crowd," not explaining the significance of that remark. However Daniel drew a revolver, called "Look out" to his rival and fired, killing Eborn instantly.

Sheriff Davis, of Warern county, brought two negroes here tonight from Warrenton by direction of the Governor to prevent them from being lynched for the killing of W. C. King, an esteemed white man, near Littleton Saturday night. The mob was in waiting for the sheriff between Warrenton and Norlina, where it thought the sheriff would carry the prisoners to get aboard the tram. However, he, hearing of the movement, turned another road to Ridgeway, thereby evading them.

A SPLENDID COMPANY.

Osman Stock Opened at The Academy Last Night.

A "standing room only" audience greeted the opening performance of the Osman Stock Company at the Academy last night. "Down Mobile," which was a successful one-nighter last season and season before, was the bill and was given a splendid production. The cast did able work and Miss Helene Reicka and Mr. Harry Hamilton, who are favorites here, were given a hearty reception. The specialties were exceedingly clever. They were bright and much enjoyed To-night the company will present the powerful drama, "Woman Against Woman." It is said to be a play of intense plot, but of plenty of comedy. A new line of specialties will be introduced.

Answered Last Roll Call.

The Star chronicles with regret the death of Mr. Peter H. Smith, for many years a valued resident of this city and a gallant Confederate soldier. He died in Richmond early Sunday morning in the 72nd year of his age and was buried there yesterday afternoon, having lived in that city with his daughter, Mrs. Thos. C. Diggs, since his retirement from business in Wilmington in 1899. He was a member of the famous Third North Carolina Infantry during the Civil War and ever remained faithful to the Lost Cause. Mr. Smith leaves three children to mourn their loss—Walter H. Smith, Mrs. Thos. C. Diggs and Clarence Clinton Smith; also one sister, Mrs. John H. Strauss, of Wilmington. The Star regrets that it cannot make a more extended reference to the life of Mr. Smith in this issue.
